

AS A CITIZEN.

Blisters. Medicine and Soothing

Syrup. — Wherein Riggins Thinks Thusly.

1. It is the duty of every citizen to help and openly approve the right, and as freely and frankly condemn the wrong.

2. Every citizen is a partner in his community and responsible for all the conditions in his community, to the fullest extent of his ability and influence.

3. It is down, right narrow selfishness for any citizen to live ignoring the helps and hindrances which he or she makes a town or city. "No man liveth to himself." Duty demands voice; a work from every man.

4. "Tell me not" that unselfish patriotism is all dead or gone! It is false. Men, as true, brave and sacrificing patriots, live today as they lived. They live right here in Waco too!

5. Our principle of Waco Trading Co. has always been; "Do your full duty as a citizen." Every man owes a debt to the people who give him the opportunity to make a living. Let that debt be fully paid, and furnish home from kitchen to parlor on liberal terms possible.

6. Sam Jones added this idea to his saying about a "hit dog." "When you notice the hit dog not howl, but all the other dogs howl around the one howling." See Friday's sermon.

7. Soothing syrup may be good, but all doctors agree that the medicines, blisters are not given because they are good or feel good, but are used to cure the trouble. Never fail to ask a friend who tells you of your own.

8. Say! The Waco Trading Co. is to see you. Furniture, carpets, stoves. "Trade in everything." The meanest, lowest down "s.will" piece of dirt in any community that man or woman who retails, unless it is that meaner pup manufacturer and bears tails between the men or women.

9. No gentleman has ever been known to advertise his "bravery," "honesty" or "truthfulness." The Waco Trading Co. is certainly busy these days, thank our terms are liberal; our prices are most reasonable; our goods the best for the money. These things the people "the idea."

10. The highest impulses of a truly grand gentleman is to do something for his fellow man. Not how low you can stoop, how much higher you can lift the community and your fellow man, the true impulse of a gentleman. Because a man does a thing, in your way, does not mean a thing. His motive may be more than yours. His results may be most valuable to all men.

11. The healer of all human understandings in any community is an angel composed to the other who invites difficulties. He is the devil's imp.

12. The Waco Trading Co. have a full and nice line of goods.

13. The Waco Trading Co. are and for the people; their terms prices show this.

A Choice List of Summer Resorts.

In the lake regions of Wisconsin, Northern Michigan, Minnesota, Iowa and the two Dakotas, there are hundreds of charming localities pre-eminently fitted for summer homes. Among the following selected list are the names familiar to many of our readers as the perfection of northern summer resorts. Nearly all of the Wisconsin points of interest are within a short distance of Chicago or Milwaukee, and none of them are so far away from the "busy marts of civilization" that they cannot be reached in a few hours travel, by frequent trains, over the finest roads in the Northwest—the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, and Milwaukee & Northern railroad:

Oconomowoc, Wis.; Clear Lake, Ia.; Minocqua, Wis.; Lakes Okoboji, Iowa; Waubesa, Wis.; Spirit Lake, Iowa; Palmyra, Wis.; Frontenac, Minn.; Tomahawk Lakes, Wis.; Lake Minnetonka, Minn.; Lakeside, Wis.; Ortonville, Minn.; Kilbourn City, Wis.; (Dells of the Wisconsin); Prior Lake, Minn.; White Bear Lake, Minn.; Beaver Dam, Wis.; Lake Madison, So. Dakota; Madison, Wis.; Delavan, Wis.; Big Stone Lake, So. Dakota; Sparta, Wis.; Pewaukee, Wis.; Elkhart Lake, Wis.; Wausaukee, Wis.; Ontonago, Mich.; Marquette, Mich.; Mackinac, Mich.

In reaching Austin, San Marcos, San Antonio, etc., via International and Great Northern railroad, Two daily trains each way. Insist upon your ticket reading via Hearne or Taylor and the International and Great Northern railroad. Perfect roadbed, magnificent equipment.

World's Fair Visitors.

An intending visitor to the coming World's Fair at Chicago need have no fear as to the possibility of securing satisfactory accommodations, at reasonable rates, at either of the many hotels or residences listed in a neat pamphlet entitled, "Homes for Visitors to the World's Fair," compiled at great expense and published by a trustworthy Chicago firm. This book contains a list of about 9,000 private families who will accommodate visitors in Chicago during the time of the Fair, viz: May 1st to October 30th; gives their names and addresses, and a number of rooms each will have to spare. The book also gives a list of the hotels and their locations; has twelve full page, large-scale maps, each representing a section of the city, so that with this information before him the intending visitor can, at leisure, select the quarter of the city in which he would prefer to stop, corresponding in advance with one or more families in that locality with regard to rates and the accommodations desired.

To help you in fixing in advance upon your place of residence while attending the World's Fair, we have placed in the hands of our agent at your station copies of this work, which may be obtained at 50 cents per copy. W. H. WINFIELD, G. P. A. Cotton Belt Route.
